Article 2. Categories

1. Scholarships for outstanding performance in off-campus extracurricular activities and competitions:

a. Student groups or individuals who are recommended by the University to participate in international, national, or regional extracurricular activities and competitions and have achieved outstanding performances, in addition to the prize already listed for the activities and competitions, are awarded scholarships based on the number of participating teams and individuals, etc.

i. International

(i) Winner of first prize or highest honor is awarded a scholarship of NTD 20,000 at most.

(ii) Winner of second prize or second highest honor is awarded a scholarship of NTD 15,000 at most.

(iii) Winner of third prize is awarded a scholarship of NTD 10,000 at most.

ii. National

(i) Winner of first prize or highest honor is awarded a scholarship of NTD 6,000 at most.

(ii) Winner of second prize or second highest honor is awarded a scholarship of NTD 5,000 at most.

(iii) Winner of third prize is awarded a scholarship of NTD 4,000 at most.

iii. Regional

(i) Winner of first prize or highest honor is awarded a scholarship of NTD 3,000 at most.

(ii) Winner of second prize or second highest honor is awarded a scholarship of NTD 2,000 at most.

(iii) Winner of third prize is awarded a scholarship of NTD 1,000 at most.

b. Eligible applicants should submit documents of proof for authorization in the same semester during which the award is announced. In the case where an award is announced at the end of semester or during summer and winter vacations, the applications can be sent in the next semester.

c. In the case of multiple awards for the same category of competition (including series), the applicant should use the highest honor for application. In such cases, at most two applications may be sent in one school year.

2. Scholarships for outstanding performance in extracurricular activities and services:

a. Eligible applicants should demonstrate experience in serving as officers in student organizations (new students are not eligible) with enthusiasm and outstanding performance, and a grade point average of 70 or above, a conduct grade of 82 or above, and a passing grade for physical education. Eligible applicants should be recommended by faculty members or student organizations. The Extracurricular Activities Section conducts the preliminary evaluation. The final list is jointly determined by the Dean of Student Affairs and one-third of the Heads of departments (priority is given to the department with no applicants).

b. A maximum of 25 awardees is selected for each semester. A scholarship of NTD 3,000 is awarded to each awardee.

c. All applications must be sent within the first four weeks of the semester, along with the transcript of the previous semester and letter of recommendation from the faculty advisor or other references.

第三條 本辦法經學生事務會議通過，陳請校長核定後實施，修正時亦同。

Article 3. The Guidelines become effective after approval by the Student Affairs Committee meeting and ratification by the President. Amendments must follow the same procedure.
